businessgames

Sensational teambuilding experience which is suitable for all delegates, as it is intense, full of tempo and highly competitive.

Would you like to try something new, exciting, creative and entertaining? Team Olympics is a funny, teambuilding orientated event, packed with concurrences and games in extremely energetic and entertaining atmosphere.

This event is designed to challenge each team's skills in communication, cooperation, setting objectives, via participating in several amusing events. With the help of both physical and mental challenges, participants learn to appreciate effective communication, trust, teamwork, coaching and much more, while they absorb challenges and have fun in that strongly energetic team séance.

Team Olympics' theme is the Olympic Games. However we have exchanged pole vault, run race, shot put and long jump with creative, mental and physical challenges.

Participants are divided into nationality assigned teams. This already generates competition spirit and assures emotional adventure. The objective of the game is to experience a nice day with loads of inspiration and learn new skills for both work and every day. The challenges can only be solved as a result of teamwork. They are fun and entertaining; therefore it is not too hard to actively participate in.

Team Olympics is an event which creates an extraordinary atmosphere as participants constantly battle for points. This ensures that all are involved.
